

B-CC IWLA New-Member Fees

2025 - 2026

New members pay annual dues as well as one-time fees. Membership runs from January 1st to December 31st. Those who join in July or later have their dues prorated. When you join in September thru December the payment includes annual dues for the following year.

We offer four types of membership.

- Individual – This is an individual membership for an adult. One membership card is issued. This membership has one vote.
- Family - Family Membership is a membership of two adults and their dependents (up to age 18) living in the same household. Each adult person will receive a membership card and have the same voting privileges as that of an Individual Membership
- Student - This is a membership for a full-time student as defined by the membership rules and regulations of the National IWLA. One membership card is issued, and the Student Member has the same voting privileges as an Individual Member.
- Youth - This is a membership for a Child as defined by the membership rules and regulations of the National IWLA. One membership card is issued, and the Youth Member has no voting privileges.
